

Women's Visions United for Mother Earth

Be a part of this growing not-for-profit project contributing to the transformation of Mother Earth.

The vision's of women the world over are joining in a quilt of love and healing. Visit the website to discover more about this project and how to get involved. You can also view each quilt piece and their respective stories.

Your vision can be imbued into the cloth simply by writing on it.

You do not need any special skills to complete a cloth for the quilt.

Join us in our common unity of love for Mother Earth.
